

colbie

Colbie is a typeface made entirely out of dots. It evokes lightness and playfulness through its rounded sides, while also remaining completely symmetrical and uniform. The name of this font comes from the name of the American pop singer-songwriter and acoustic guitarist, Colbie Caillat. This artist's musical style is light and airy, which embodies the style of this typeface. She also has a song entitled "Bubbly" which is the essence of these letterforms.
